Brooks Trail - 0.8 km

Brooks Trail was named in recognition of the efforts of Scott Brooks, the driving force behind the building of the Red River Community Centre. This pleasant trail skirts the Red River and weaves through a lovely greenspace bordering the upscale suburb of Rivergrove. It has scenic overlooks, decorative benches and foot bridges and is completely accessible for wheelchairs and child strollers.

Points of Interest

- 1 McBeth House - Once a Scottish family's early pioneer home, it is now a seniors activity centre. The McBeth family gifted the home and surrounding farming property to the City of Winnipeg for use as a passive park.
- 2 Tall grass prairie restoration site - At one time tall grass prairie was a vast sea of waving grasses and wildflowers extending from southern Manitoba to Texas.
- 3 River bottom forest - This forest is home to some of Winnipeg's largest cottonwood trees.
